RE: Reference for Kenesary Company LLP (Republic of Kazakhstan)

Dear Sir/Madam,

Kenesary Company LLP (Republic of Kazakhstan) is an international health environmental organisation specialising in providing research services to the stakeholders both public and private sector including the international oil and gas companies such as 'Agip KCO', 'North Caspian Operating Company b.v.', 'Chevron Texaco', 'British gas', 'Arthur D. Little' and others.

In 2015 the President of the Company Prof Usen Kenessariyev became a member of the Academic Union, Oxford (UK), for consistent activity in the regional sector, which has led to the enhancement of social wellbeing for modern society and its intellectual development.

Kenesary Company LLP holds the leading position in its field and has maintained good reputation on a regional level. The Academic Union, Oxford (UK), confirms the high strategic management level of the enterprise as well as the steady improvement of the technological processes.

Prof. Kenessariyev is also the head of the Department of General Hygiene and Ecology of the Kazakh National Medical University (KazNMU). The laboratory 'Assessment of public health risks', organised by Professor Kenessariyev, was recognized as the only laboratory providing such services in the region by the Ministry of Health of the Republic of Kazakhstan. It is also registered by The World Health Organization (W.H.O.) and has been included onto the list of the organizations familiar with the methodology of public health risk analysis.

Over the years the company has accomplished over 100 research projects for environment and public health in ecologically unfavorable areas of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Osland

Secretary General
